Visitors Are Welcome

All visitors are to check in with the Dean or Camp Director upon arrival. Visitors are expected to pay $6.00 per meal and to abide by all camp rules. All visitors are to leave by 10:00 P.M.

If your child is prone to homesickness it is usually best just to write them rather than to visit or call. Encourage them before they come to have a good time and tell them that you will pick them up at the end of the week. You may drop off mail at check in.

What To Bring

Good attitude, Bible, pencil, pillow, bedding, toiletries, towels, washcloths, swimsuit, clothing (remember modesty prevails), canteen money, Missions money, sun screen, flashlight and bug spray. Note: Lost and found items are held till the end of the summer then donated to the needy.

What Not To Bring

We desire your time here at camp to be a time set apart for God so we ask you leave these distractions at home:
 Cell phones, food, weapons, fireworks, electronics, prank items, candy, gum, computers, tobacco, drugs, alcohol, magazines, books, and etc.

Ganteen Cards

At registration campers will be given a camp store card in exchange for all money brought. The card may be used to purchase items at the camp store as well as for missions offerings. Between $20 and $25 should be sufficient. Unless requested back, at the end of the program all money left on the card will be given to missions.

Insurance

SICSC provides a coinsurance for all campers. The Family or Individual policy is the primary coverage for accidents and injuries. The camp policy will pay costs not covered by the primary policy only to the limits of the camp policy. Parents must list their insurance company and policy number on the registration card.

Dress Code

Dress Casual

Shorts are great too. No short shorts!

Girls can wear dresses or skirts if they want to. (boys cannot)
